

Gin

List

*The Dutch invented it,
the English refined it and the
New World glamorised it*

No. 3 £5.00

Origin: London

Strength: 46%

Just three fruits and three spices are essential to No. 3's flavour. Italian juniper, Spanish orange peel and zingy grapefruit peel blended with Anjelica root, Moroccan coriander and cardamom pods.

The key on the bottle was inspired by the key to The Parlour's door at No. 3 St James's Street's shop.

~served with a wedge of orange~

Recommended Tonic ~ Indian

Berkeley Square £4.25

Origin: London

Strength: 40%

With 240 years of gin making behind it, Berkeley Square rewards the educated drinker with rather more to savour and enjoy. A unique orchestration of botanicals – basil, lavender & kaffir lime leaves, macerated with pure grain spirit in a small pot still – combines to produce that most provocatively English of qualities: effortless superiority!

~served with basil and lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Naturally Light

Gordon's London Dry £3.25

Origin: London

Strength: 37.5%

A unique blend of botanicals centred around juniper berries to create the ultimate refreshing taste.

The World's bestselling London Gin.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Indian

Tanqueray Rangpur £3.75

Origin: London

Strength: 41.3%

Tanqueray Rangpur unveils British-India's best-kept secret. The rare Rangpur lime, used to smooth down gin, brings an exotic bold flavour.

Honoured with a Royal Warrant in 1925,

Tanqueray is one of the world's most awarded gins.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Mediterranean

*'I never drink anything stronger than gin
before breakfast'*

W.C. Fields

*'Of all the gin joints in all the towns
in all the World, she walks into mine'
Humphrey Bogart in Casablanca*

Sipsmith £4.75

Origin: London
Strength: 41.6%

Classically London Dry in style, Sipsmith is produced in a one-shot fashion, which limits production size but produces a bright, rich and flavourful London Dry Gin.

Sipsmith London Dry Gin is crafted by distilling English barley spirit with ten select botanicals.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Indian

Martin Miller's

Westbourne Strength £5.50

Strength: 45.2%

Recommended Tonic ~ Naturally Light

Classic £3.50

Strength: 40%
Origin: England

Obsessive attention to detail and traditional botanicals combine with Iceland's purest spring water – no other gin goes to these lengths to achieve perfection.

Icelanders believe fairies live in the spring water used to make Martin Miller's gin.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Indian

Gin Mare £5.50

Origin: Spain
Strength: 42.7%

Inspired by Mediterranean cuisine, Gin Mare's botanicals include Arbequina olive, rosemary, thyme & basil.

This imparts a truly unique character to the taste.
Each botanical is individually macerated, distilled separately then blended by the Master distiller Marc Giro.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Mediterranean

Tonic Water £1.80

We serve Fever-Tree as our tonic water of choice, in our opinion it's simply the best

Mediterranean Tonic ~ delicate & floral
Naturally Light Indian Tonic
Indian Tonic

Greenall's Bloom £4.00

Origin: UK
Strength: 40%

Bloom is a delicate floral London Dry Gin, enriched by natural English country garden botanicals such as chamomile, pomelo and honeysuckle.

Greenalls Bloom London Dry Gin was inspired by the only known female master gin distiller.

~served with strawberries~

Recommended Tonic ~ Naturally Light

William Chase £5.50

Origin: England
Strength: 48%

Chase press their organically grown cider apples, before fermenting and distilling them into vodka. It is then redistilled with eleven carefully selected botanicals to produce a full bodied, sharp and fruity gin.

Single estate gin made from seed to bottle on the Chase family farm in Herefordshire.

~served with a generous squeeze of lime~

Recommended Tonic ~ Naturally Light

Beefeater 24 £4.00

Origin: London
Strength: 45%

Includes grapefruit peel and Seville orange alongside Japanese Sencha tea.

The father of James Burrough was discovered to be Queen Victoria's 'royally appointed' tea merchant, inspiring Beefeater 24.

~served with a wedge of orange~

Recommended Tonic ~ Mediterranean

Hendrick's £4.00

Origin: Scotland
Strength: 41.4%

Distilled in Ayrshire, Scotland, where one would least expect to find a gin.

The addition of cucumber and Bulgarian Rosa Damascena rose petals delivers a refreshing gin with floral aromas.

Hendrick's is made in miniscule 450L batches using both a carter-head and a benet still.

~served with cucumber~

Recommended Tonic ~ Mediterranean

All our gin is served in 35ml measures

*'I'll stick with gin, Champagne is just ginger ale that knows somebody'
Alan Alda as Hawkeye in M*A*S*H*